PREFATORY NOTES.

The First Book of the EDBURTON REGISTERS was published in 1884, being the year I removed from the parish. The Second Book had then been transcribed, but the MS. needed revising and correcting. An opportunity for doing this, by reference to the original Register, has recently been afforded me by the kindness of the present Rector, the Rev. A. P. WHARTON, an old friend.

While the Second Register Book commences with the year 1656, the entries down to 1674 are copies from the First Register Book. A few omissions in this copied portion, supplied from the original, will be found in the foot notes.

It will be noticed that this Register Book contains no Burials between the years 1681 and 1700. They were possibly entered in a separate book, now lost.

The Marriages in the Second Register Book end in 1754, on the passing of the Marriage Act, 26 George II. The entries in the succeeding Marriage Register Book (1754-1812), copied in abbreviated form, will be found on pp. 98-100.

On the fly leaf of the Second Register Book are written the "Churchmarks"; see pp. 101-102. The First Register Book contains a similar list, dated 1610. By an old custom, before the days of Church Rates, the repair of the Churchyard Fences appears to have been assigned by agreement to the Landowners or better class of tenants in the parish.
